Sakotura Jazz Fest 0.2

It's been a while since drummer Nikos Psophiogoros left life.

His friends have set up a club in order to keep his memory. With lots of music.

Nikos in his 30 years of living in Thessaloniki played almost all kinds of music. But his great love was jazz and the freedom that he gives to the one who plays or just listens. This term, of course, gave a much broader meaning than the obvious. It is music without boundaries and signs. Freedom of music and emotional expression.

With this in mind, we started last summer, organizing a festival in the homeland of Nikos Psophogiorgos in southern Pelion. With the noble support of Angelinis - Hatzinikos Foundation, and the help of many people and especially musicians, the Sakotura Jazz Fest 0.1 was held, hoping to continue and establish a permanent festival in South Pelion.

For music. For Nikos.

For the second consecutive year, the Sakotura Jazz Fest 0.2 Festival is being held, in memory of Nikos Psophogiorgos. This time under the umbrella of the newly established Sakotouras Association - Friends of N. Psophiorgou, in collaboration with the Angelinis-Hatzinikos Public Benefit Foundation.

This year's program opens its wings to other worlds of jazz:

MAGNANIMUS trio
