

2017

Seminar

“Singing Brahms in Greece”

The Non-Profit Foundation Angelinis – Hadjinikou
presents

Ein Deutsches Requiem

Johannes Brahms

featuring

Timothy Brown, conductor

Horto, Greece

29 July - 5 August, 2017

Singers are invited to participate in a choral course conducted by Timothy Brown in the Greek village of Horto.

Participants will be able to rehearse and perform a piano-duo version of Ein Deutsches Requiem by Johannes Brahms. The performance will take place in the open air theatre of the Angelinis - Hadjinikou Foundation.

The course is open to experienced singers and includes additional activities such as voice coaching, polyphonic Greek songs, Greek dancing, swimming on a daily basis and a non-singing day for a boat trip or other activity.

Accommodation will be the participant's own responsibility.

